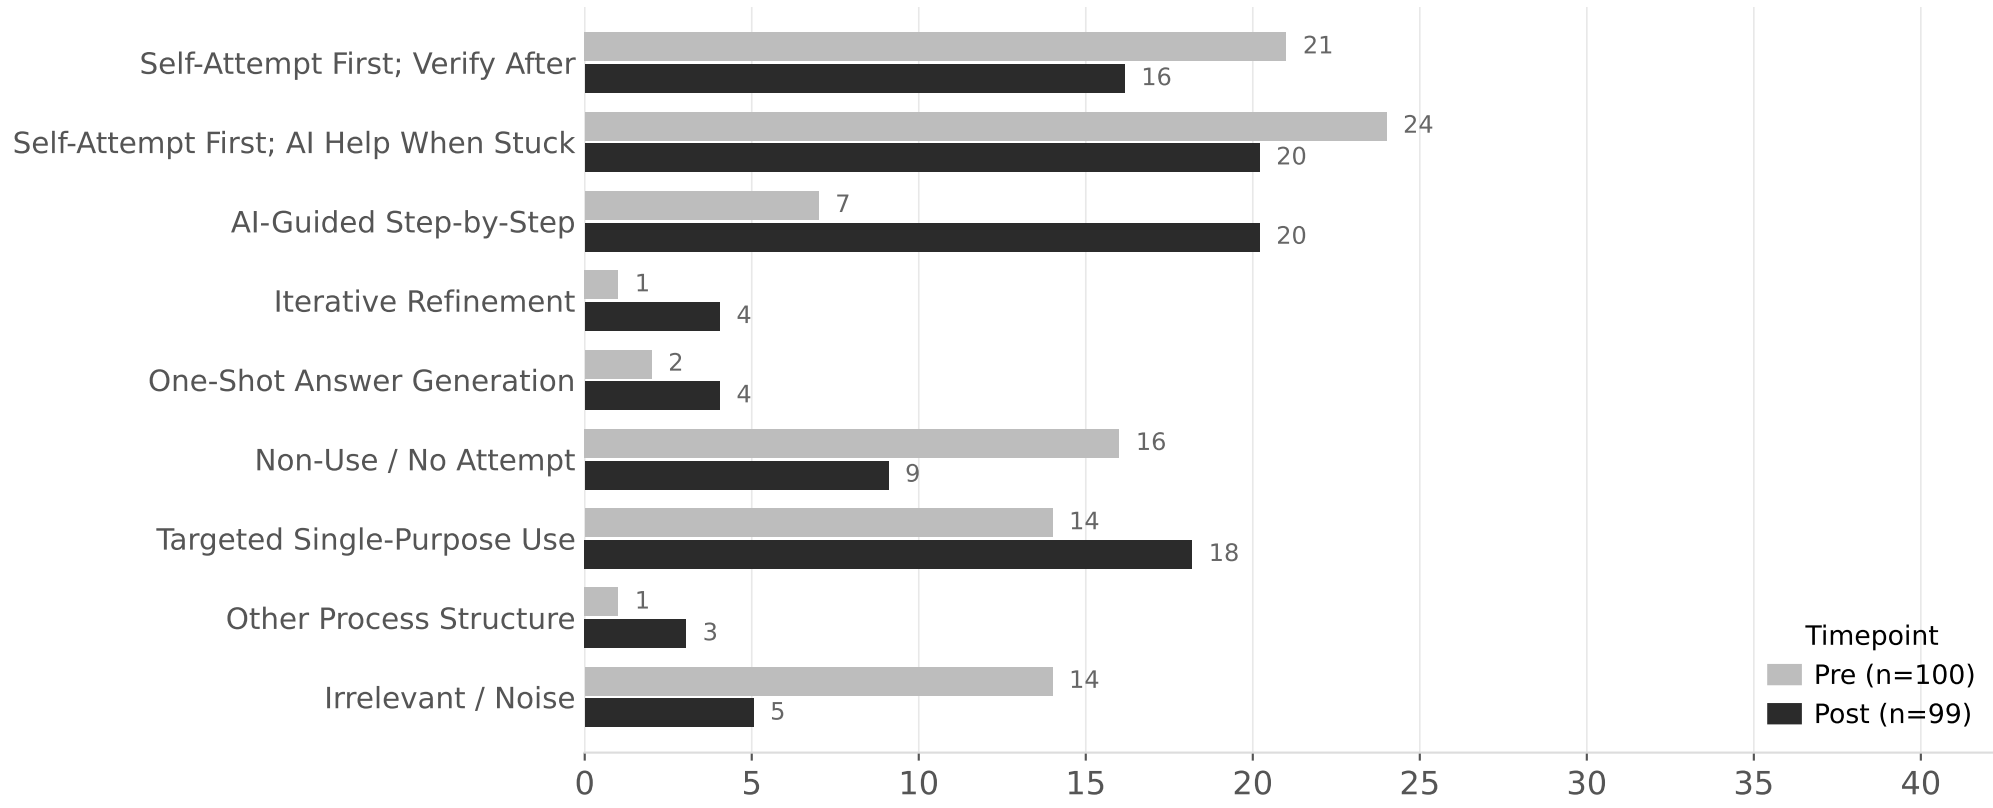
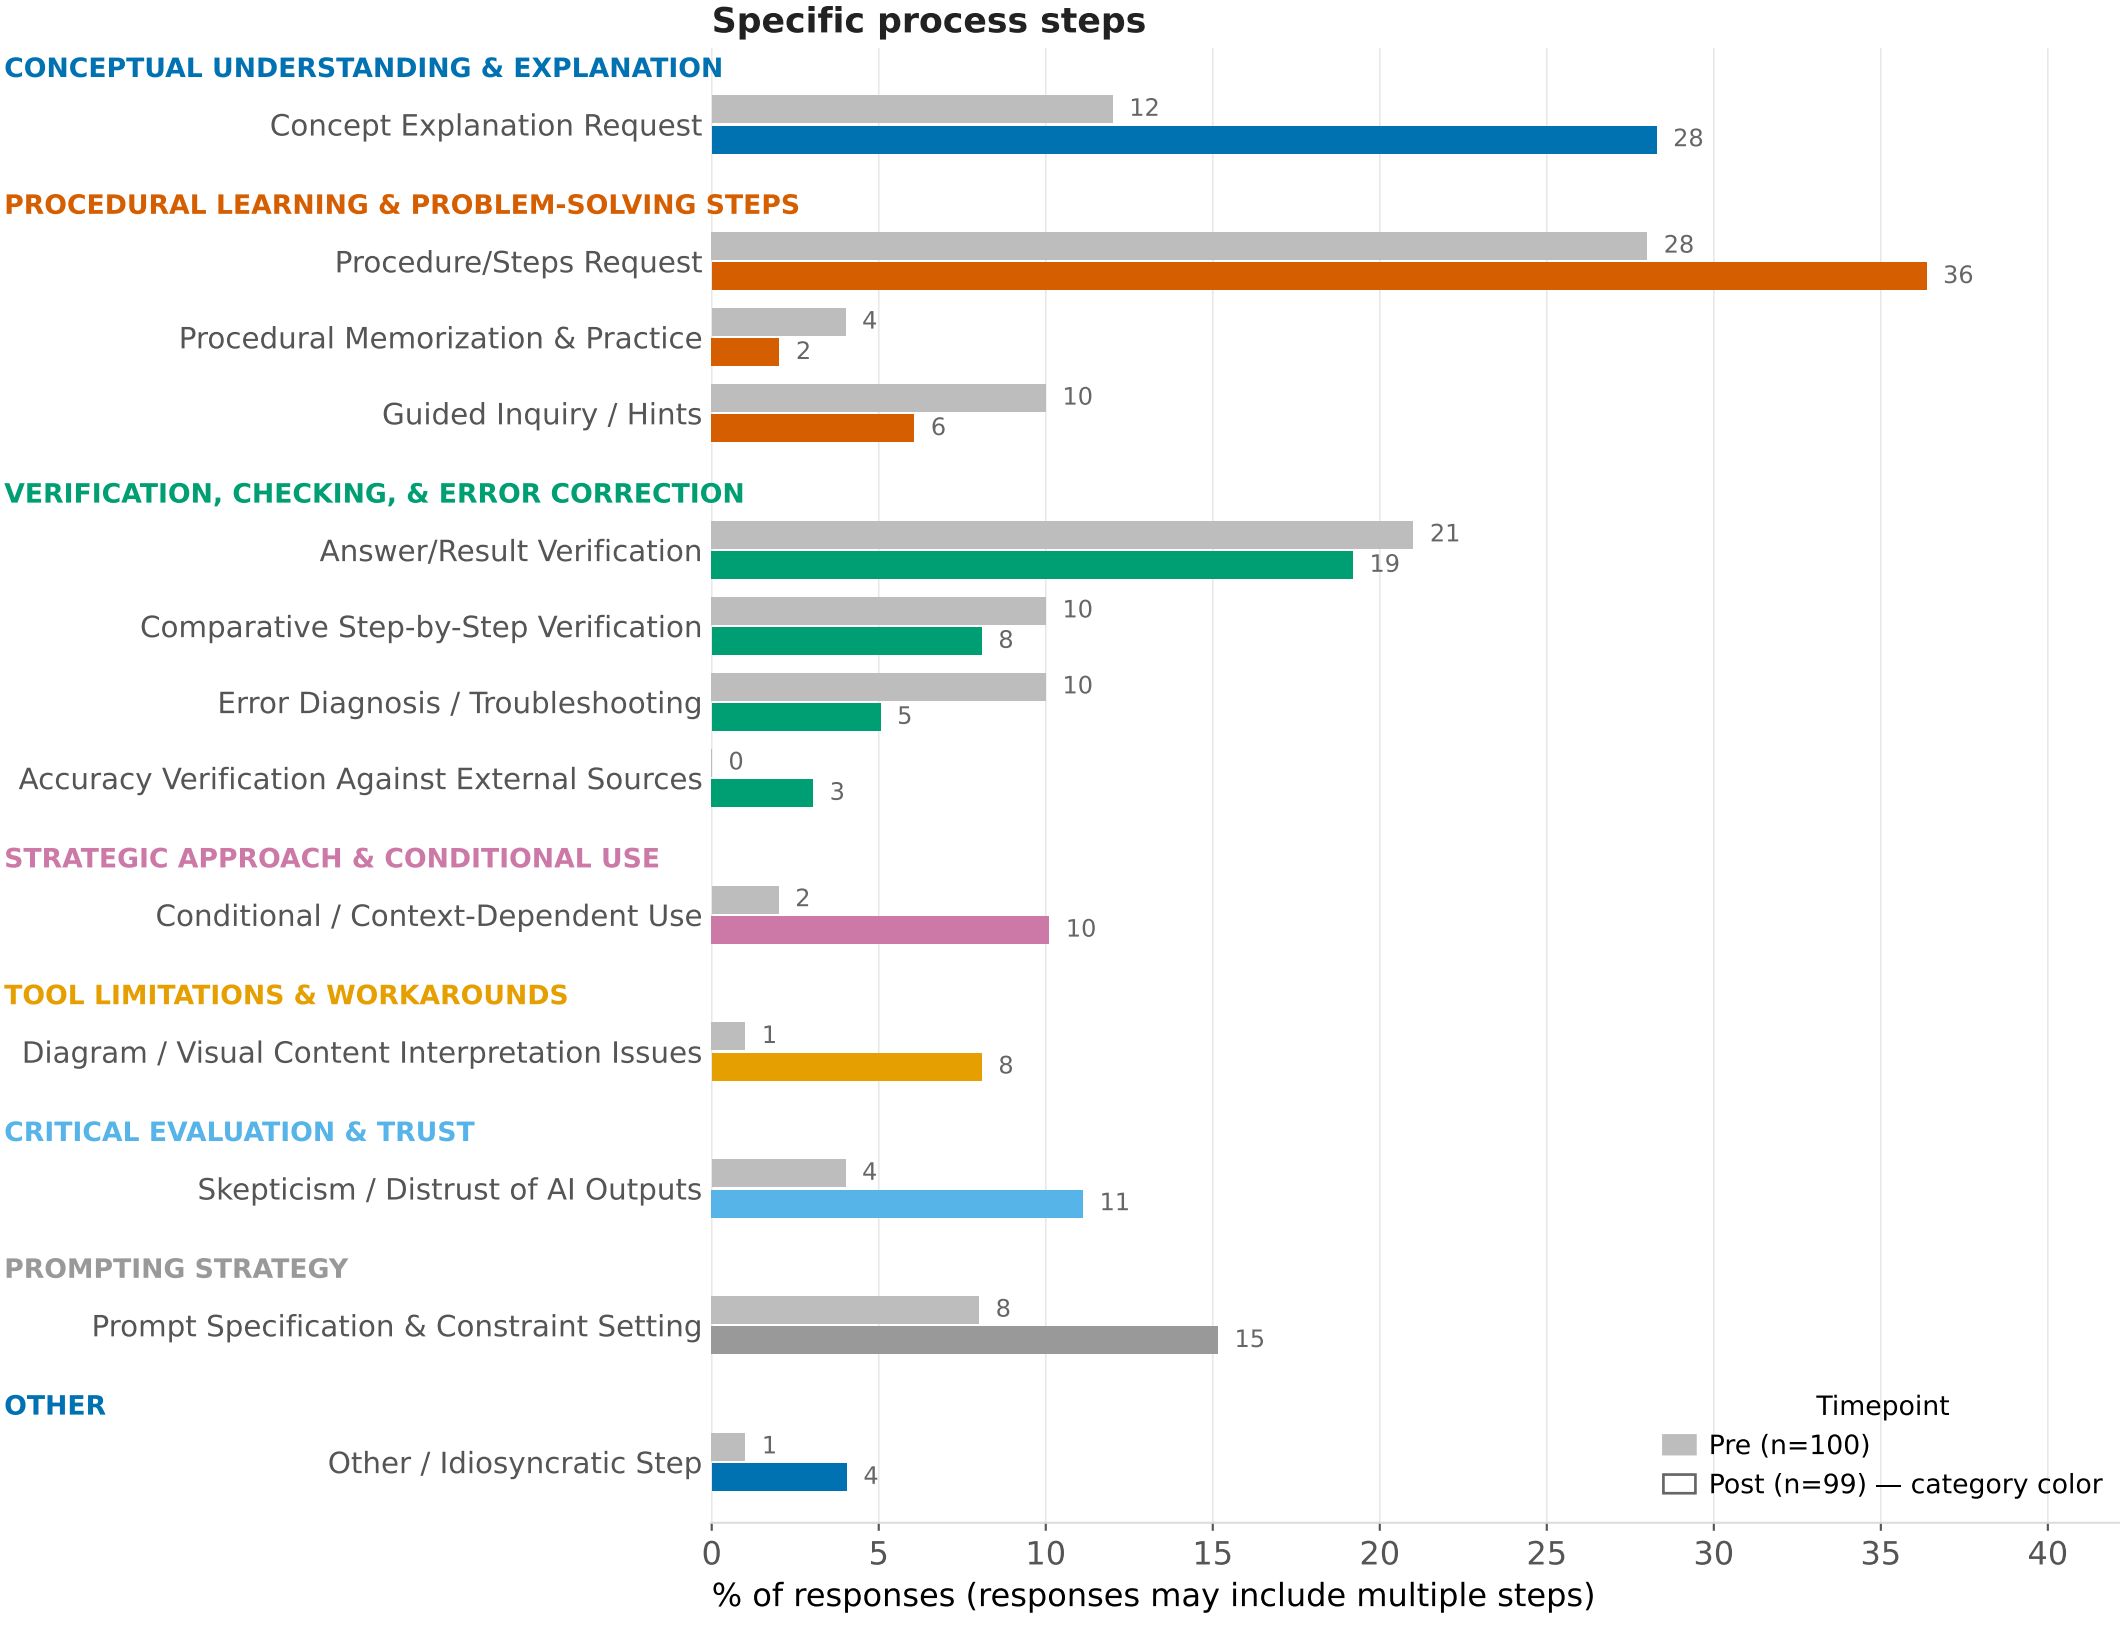
When you use AI tools for this course, what steps do you usually take from first question to final answer? (open-ended, pre vs. post)

Overall process structure (each response coded with exactly one)





Specific process steps